Director of Academic Programs
Institute for Humane Studies
Aug 2011 – Aug 2012 • 1 yr 1 mo
Arlington, VA

In this role, I was responsible for directing the Academic Department's programming, including oversight of the award and distribution of the Humane Studies Fellowship, which disbursed $822,000 of scholarship funding to graduate students around the world. I was responsible for maintaining relationships with external vendors and contractors, and for strategic planning for the department. I served on the IHS Management Team.

Academic Dean of Students
The American University of Iraq, Sulaimani
Aug 2010 – Sep 2011 • 1 yr 2 mos
Sulaimani, Iraq

I oversaw every aspect of student life at the American University in the Kurdish region of Iraq. I was responsible for directing a staff of fourteen and a number of volunteers, and for interacting with various department heads to ensure proper budgeting, legal and academic compliance, and health, safety, and welfare for students, staff, and faculty. In my capacity as Dean I was also responsible for the oversight of the institution's academic integrity. I was directly responsible for all academic and non-academic discipline, and for overseeing all extra-curricular events and athletic programs at the University. Additionally, I assisted the Provost with faculty oversight, hiring, and university security, along with various Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) arrangements with partner and potential partner institutions. Finally, I managed the University's two MBA programs, one internal and one in conjunction with Hochschule Furtwangen University, on an interim basis.
